NOTICE—S&H GREEN STAMPS ARE NOT TRANSFERABLE

S&H Green Stamps and collectors' books are never sold to stamp collectors, to the merchants who issue them or to any other persons. S&H at all times retains title to its stamps and stamp collectors' books, as well as the right to the possession thereof, subject only to the rights of S&H stamp collectors, as set forth in this notice, and the rights of the merchants who issue S&H stamps, as set forth in their S&H contracts.

S&H Stamps are your reward for prompt cash payment to the merchants issuing them. The only right which you acquire in the stamps is to paste them into books like this and present them to us for redemption. You must not dispose of the stamps or make any further use of them without our consent in writing. We will always allow you to give the stamps to any other bona fide S&H stamp collector. If, however, you transfer the stamps, or stamp collectors' books containing S&H stamps, without our consent, we reserve the right to restrain their use by, or take them from, the persons to whom you have transferred them.

S&H Green Stamps must be pasted in our stamp collectors' books since this is the method we have adopted to prevent their further use. It is to your advantage to fill these books and to personally redeem them. We urge you to do so.
